1866 Prince von

(1815-1898) BISMARCK, Karl Otto Eduard Leopold

Born at Schönhausen. He early entered political life, being always a strong imperialist. The idea of Germany's freedom from foreign control and union under the crown of Prussia originated with Bismarck, but his sincerity and judgment were doubted at first.

In 1862 he was made Minister of Foreign Affairs. In 1864 he won general approbation by the conquest and annexation of SCHLESWIG. Next he brought Austria to terms in 1866, in consequence of which his long Christian plan was made possible, & the establishment of a German Confederation with Prussia at its head made him the idol of his compatriots.

Exasperated by his treatment, Napoleon III declared war and advanced on Berlin. To the surprise of all Europe, the French were vigorously driven back. The threatening power of France and Austria helpless, the German Empire restored under a HOHENZOLLEERN King. Bismarck was installed a Chancellor. He reorganized & built up the empire. After numerous quarrels with William II, he resigned (3/20/1890).

He was the greatest European statesman in the 19th Century.
